Through the Gears

It has been a great year for us, and seems car events are winding down with just a couple more to attend. The most important is the October 2nd Corvair Heritage Day Skagit Valley Wine tour. Then we have our annual Christmas Potluck on December 11.

This brings us to planning for next years events. One of my objectives this year was to have a list of next years events that North Cascades Corvairs would focus on attending as a group, and put it on a schedule by the end of December. As it turns out, members at the last meeting voted on putting an NCC calendar for 2011 together, with pictures of members cars. The focus will be on having the key car events identified and highlighted, along with other events in the area that might be of interest.

The little yellow booklet (NW Car Calendar) does not come out until later in October, a bit late for getting our calendar together. But we can still use the 2010 booklet to identify the weekends of the events, and make preliminary decisions. We will do this at our October meeting. So come prepared to discuss the events that you liked this year, and would like to see in our calendar next year.

Special thanks this month to Debbie Granger and John Sayer for the excellent job planning, and guiding us through the Fraser Valley on September 18th. We met on the Canadian side of the border, and started the day with the group going to breakfast. The tour took us winding through the beautiful countryside while visiting six wineries. There was also a stop for lunch at Fort Langley, where some decided to take in the historic Hudson Bay trading post established in 1827. Except for a slight drizzle in the early morning hours, it was a fantastic day with blue skies and sunshine.

New Business

The memorial for Wally McKinley will be included in next months Corsa Communique.

Plan to attend the December holiday meeting will be held on Saturday December 11, 2010 with an afternoon/evening Potluck Dinner affair, hosted by Gordy and Barb Croydon's.

Fred is looking for a holiday season community service suggestion for our club to donate. Andy agreed to check on sponsoring of a local student scholarship. Bring any additional ideas to the October meeting.

Fred Croydon brought up the subject of NCC producing a 2011 calendar feature on cars on a 1/2 page format, same as last year. This was well received by all. He has the facilities on hand to produce the calendars, and needs good car photos. Suggestions were made to sue this a medium for promoting our club, by sending copies to other local clubs, ect. Forward your favorite car pictures and a short historical note to Fred. Calendar details will need to be finalized by the December meeting.

We offered to support all the costs of Fred's calendar production and asked him to suggest quantity and estimate cost of an initial publication run.

Officer nominations are due at the October monthly meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 7:20

NCC BC Wine Tour 2010

A big THANK YOU to Debbie and John for planning a great event in the Fraser Valley Wine country in British Columbia Canada. Personally, I almost did not make the trip, I was unable to locate my passport. Thankfully, I found my passport in my photo copier. Always the last place you look. If you did not make this adventure, mark it on your calendar for next year!

Saturday started waayyyy toooo early with a little rain as my journey to British Columbia began. No lines or problems getting over the boarder and I was able to be at the Campbell River Sore and Gas station with plenty of time to meet with the other Corvaair.

The group We left Campbell River Store and headed to McJac's Roadhouse Grill for breakfast, where we were introduced to Henry and Jennie Bromley, their son Sandy and his wife Christine from the Western Canadian Corvaair club. Fred and Tawny brought their friend Carol. After good food and conversation, all the cars lined up in the overcastted skies and a little rain, we headed on to the six wineries scheduled for the tour and a lunch, shopping and exploring stop in Fort Langley.

This month we will also be asking for volunteers and/or nominations for officers for 2011. Voting will be in November.
